Experienced OB/GYN Expands Harts Health Center's Women's Healthcare Services

Harts, W.Va. – Valley Health is pleased to announce that it will expand women's healthcare service offerings at its Harts health center with the addition of experienced OB/GYN physician, Javier Vallejos, MD.

Dr. Vallejos, who brings more than 30 years of practice experience to the role, will offer a variety of gynecological services to Harts patients, including routine preventive screenings, prenatal care and menopausal care. He also has the ability to perform gynecologic procedures and surgeries.

"We welcome the addition of Dr. Vallejos to our Harts health center," said Steve Shattls, chief executive officer of Valley Health. "His extensive background in women's healthcare will serve Lincoln County patients well."

Board-certified by the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Dr. Vallejos completed his OB/GYN residency at Sinai Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland and two OB/GYN fellowship programs, one at the University of Paris in France and the other at the University of Vienna in Austria.

Dr. Vallejos, who is now accepting new patients, joins a dedicated team of physicians at Valley Health – Harts that include Buddy Hurt, DO, Charles Vance, DO, Caroline Culver, PA-C, and Jon Paul Kardos, DDS. The practice, which specializes in family medicine, dentistry and OB/GYN, is open by appointment on Mondays from 8:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m., Tuesdays through Thursdays from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Fridays from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Valley Health is located at 22 Fleming Drive in Harts, West Virginia. Patients wishing to schedule an appointment with Dr. Vallejos or any other Valley Health-Harts provider may call 304-855-4595.
