Dr. Whitney Fulton, Child Psychiatrist, Joins Valley Health

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. – Dr. Whitney Fulton, child psychiatrist, recently joined the Valley Health – East Huntington team.

Fulton graduated in 2010 from the Joan C. Edwards School of Medicine at Marshall University with her Doctorate of Medicine degree. She recently completed her residency and fellowship at the Medical University of South Carolina where she worked with children and adolescents in the Department of Psychiatry.

“I have always enjoyed working with kids and am excited I am able to do that for my career,” Fulton explained.

Fulton treats children and adolescents between the ages of 4 – 18. Her areas of interest are mood, anxiety, behavioral and developmental disorders.

“We are pleased to welcome Dr. Fulton to our team of providers,” Steve Shattls, executive director/CEO of Valley Health, said. “She opens the door for us to offer greater access to children who need behavioral healthcare.”

To schedule an appointment, call (304) 399-3310. Office hours are Monday through Thursday, 8 a.m. – 4 p.m. For a complete list of Valley Health’s services and locations, visit www.valleyhealth.org or call (304) 525-3334.

A South Point native, Fulton enjoys spending time with her husband and two young sons, reading, cooking and going to the beach.
