Valley Health Welcomes Licensed Clinical Social Worker Gina Lendvay

HUNTINGTON, W.VA. – Valley Health recently welcomed Gina Lendvay, a licensed clinical social worker, to its team of behavioral health providers in Huntington and Hurricane.

Lendvay received her master's in social work from West Virginia University in 2011. Most recently she worked at Highland Hospital and River Park Hospital where she provided therapy as well as served as an instructor and supervisor for master's level interns in counseling and social work. Her treatment areas of interest include depression, anxiety, self-injury and Dialectical Behavior Therapy (DBT). DBT is a newly added program at Valley Health and is used for some of the most difficult-to-treat symptoms and problems, such as substance abuse disorders and chronic suicidal behaviors.

Lendvay is currently accepting new patients of all ages at Valley Health - East Huntington, 3377 US Route 60, and Valley Health – Hurricane located at 3729 Teays Valley Rd. To schedule an appointment, call 304-399-3310 or 304-760-6040, respectively.

Lendvay enjoys interior decorating, reading, meditation and travel.
